FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Forest of Angels, Inc. distributed over $12000 to local charities

Forest of Angels, Inc. announced and awarded the winner and all charities part of the Forest of Angels tree decorating contest

Forest of Angels® is a community organization that partnered with local businesses to raise money for well-known local charities. Local businesses sponsored and decorated Christmas trees and competed for votes to see which business had the best decorated tree. Each business selected a charity whose cause they support. The charities have received a donation on behalf of the business that it partnered with for the event.

For the third year of Forest of Angels®, the decorated trees were on display at the Promenade of Coconut Creek for all to enjoy from November 29 to December 20, 2014. Hundreds of shoppers voted and took part in the event that benefits many good organizations that dedicate themselves to helping people live better lives.

Participating businesses and charities were given the results of the contest on Sunday December 21 2014.

Forest of Angels raised

The winners were announced and the charities were mailed their prizes on December 30 2014. The first place winner was the Parklander Magazine and their charity, Special Olympics Florida-Broward County, and received $6000.

Second place winner was the Soapy Bar and the third place winner was Elisa and Bill Schroader with Scentsy.

Charities were recognized and a donation on behalf the business that selected them was sent a donation check.

Forest of Angels® will continue with the project and will hold the Forest of Angels® event in 2015. They look forward to even greater participation in 2015.
